

Welcome to Table for Ten!

We are truly honored to be a part of this culinary event and know that all the renowned chefs here tonight will create an experience like no other! We know this will be a night to remember!

At Make-A-Wish, we believe that every child battling a critical illness should receive a wish. A granted wish is more than just a 'nice' thing. It's a life-changing experience that stays with our wish children and their families for a lifetime. A granted wish provides hope and sparks inspiration for the children and families we serve.

Your support of tonight's event will help us in achieving our vision of granting the wish of every medically-eligible child living in our local community.

Together, we can transform lives one wish at a time.

Granting wishes together.

AMINA'S CAFÉ

I wish to be a chef

Amina, 6
wish granted, 2014
leukemia

Meet Amina

For as long as she can remember, Amina has wanted to be a chef more than anything.

At the age of 4, she was diagnosed with leukemia. To keep herself entertained as she recovered from many chemo treatments, Amina would spend hours watching cooking shows and helping her parents in the kitchen.

In 2014, her wish to be a chef came true with the opening of Amina's Café. This exclusive pop-up event allowed her to cook for all her family and friends, and even sign her very own cookbook.

Now 12, Amina's dream is still alive. She enjoys spending time with her family, cooking, singing and acting.

AMINA'S PHYLLO SPUN SHRIMP

serves 4

- 1 pkg Shredded Phyllo, Defrosted
- 1 lb Shrimp, Peeled & Deveined Tails On
- 1 cup Flour
- 3 Eggs, Beaten
- 1 lb Spring Peas, Blanched
- ¼ oz Mint
- ¼ cup Heavy Cream, Warmed
- 2 Roma Tomatoes, Small Diced
- 1 Shallot, Small Diced
- 1 Jalapeño, Small Diced
- 2 Limes, Juiced
- 1 Tbsp Sugar
- 1 tsp Ginger
- 1 tsp Garlic
- 2 Tbsp Water
- 1 Thyme Sprig

1. Dredge the shrimp in the flour then coat with the eggs. Finish in the shredded phyllo, making sure to press on the phyllo if necessary. Set on a tray and keep in the fridge.

2. To make the sauce, sauté the shallot, ginger, garlic and jalapeno for 1 minute. Add the tomatoes, sugar, lime juice, water and thyme. Bring to boil, drop to a simmer and reduce until thickened. Pass through the blender and then a food mill. Keep in the fridge until ready to use.

3. To make the pea purees, add the peas to the blender and add only one tablespoon of cream. Add salt. Blend the peas until very smooth and thick, add cream as needed.

4. Finish the puree with the mint. Buzzing it up at the end and quickly to maintain green color.

5. Once ready, fry the shrimp in oil for 3-4 minutes until phyllo is golden and shrimp is cooked. Plate together with the puree and sauce.
